

Mahesh Madkholkar

Dear Members, Shubh Navratri! As the divine energies of Maa Durga graced us during those sacred nine nights, we drew strength from Her boundless wisdom and compassion from Her eternal love. This Navratri became a journey of inner transformation, where we triumphed over our inner demons—doubt, fear, and negativity—and embraced the radiant light of faith, courage, and positivity. With every beat of the dandiya, our hearts resonated with kindness. Shubh Dussehra: As the flames of Ravana's effigy once rose high, Dussehra had reminded us that every victory of good over evil was possible when we conquered the demons within. The festival had whispered the timeless truth that integrity, courage, and love always triumphed over arrogance, greed, and hatred. Yesterday's battles of the soul were won, and we had emerged stronger, kinder, and braver. Gandhi Jayanti: As we celebrate Gand.....